The Society of St Francis is a Religious Order in the Anglican Communion, committed to following Christ in the way of Saint Francis of Assisi in humility, love and joy.

The First Order consists of two communities: one for men (SSF) and one for women (CSF). They are engaged in the work of prayer and with the poor and underprivileged.

franciscan is the magazine of the First Order in the European Province, though from time to time it includes news and information of the First Order in other provinces.

All Companions of SSF subscribe to franciscan as it contains news of the Society and its members, and includes a list of the brothers and sisters of the First Order and their engagements which they hold in prayer.

For more information about becoming a Companion of SSF please contact:
